Dear Kay:

I enjoyed meeting Ed Van Hooser at the Campus Evangelism seminar recently. I am glad to know that he profited from the experience, and was able to take some things home with him to make his ministry at Western Kentucky more effective.

Frankly, Kay, I see no way that I can get free to work with your students there in the near future. My responsibilities here at Highland are even more involved than I thought at first. I have to be here every weekend because of the preaching on Sunday. I have no time that I can make available for the kind of thing that Wes and I talked about while you were in Abilene.

I hope the Elders there will understand. At the time I talked with your father I thought I would have some time available but subsequent developments, including my staying here to preach for the Highland church, preclude my coming.

I hope you are having a great year at school. We thoroughly enjoyed having all of you in Abilene this past summer. It was a great spiritual experience for us.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Bro. Chalk,

I am writing this letter on behalf of my father, L. Wesley Jones. We are home and back into an exciting school year after a wonderful summer's experience! When I look back over the summer I always have such fond memories of the visit my family had in your home and my introduction to Mexican food.

The church office here has lost the card on which we had the dates to consider for your long weekend visit with us here in the spring on behalf of the campus work. Since then you have made the decision to stay at Highland and your personal circumstances may have changed. Would you please send us three or four dates in the spring that you would be willing to come and spend here? The long weekend would include Thursday through Sunday.

Bro. Ed VanHooser said he saw you at the Campus Evangelism Seminar over the Thanksgiving holiday and he had several interesting stories to tell about you! His life was very richly blessed by the whole experience.

We are looking forward greatly to seeing you in the spring!

In Christ,

Kay Jones
